POMONA RAILWAY STATION GALLERY

The Banana Shed | 30 Aug - 25 Sep

Suellen Tomkins exhibition titled "Chromascape: Landscapes in Colour" explores her painting process through the experimentation of colour, shapes and style through the subject of landscapes. The exhibition paintings demonstrate her natural preference for vibrant colours, dramatic shapes and energetic marks. They are inspired by a trip to the Queensland outback and a magical morning in a hot-air balloon over the Noosa hinterland.

POMONA RAILWAY STATION GALLERY

In the Carriage Room | 7 Sep - 3 Oct

Frankie Barloc's exhibition of digital art posters is called "Star Spiral Spike."

The posters are based on photos taken by the artist and re-joined to make kaleidoscopic images or repeat patterns. The images are sometimes used as backgrounds behind a hero animal that has shared a moment in Frankie's life. Frankie's work is a form of meditation, an escape from everyday anxieties, and the subject matter is the things she observes and would like to remember.
